GREAT RESULTS

from Small Beginnings

"God, who prepares his work through ages, accomplishes it by the weakest instruments, when his time has come. To effect great results by the smallest means,—such is the law of God."—D'Aubigné.

The progress of the Seventh-day Adventists is a record of the work of the Spirit of God through a simple and almost penniless people. The story of this progress makes an inspiring volume, especially when written by one who has been in the work, and part of it, all the way along.

In "The Great Advent Movement," Elder J. N. Loughborough, a pioneer in this message, graphically portrays the progress of the denomination since its inception. You will appreciate the solidity of the whole foundation of this message as never before when you read of the experiences, trials, disappointments, and final victories of those who gave their lives for this truth.

THE YEARS.

They are floating away, these swift, sweet years,
Adown the river of time,
Bearing their burdens of smiles and tears,
In a monody sublime.
With never a break in their rapid flow,
They drift to the peaceful past,
With smiling summers or drifted snow,
Like leaves in the current cast.

Those beautiful years are gliding fast,
Like the flying thread of a dream;
They were ours while passing, but soon were past,
And we catch but their fading gleam;
Soundless is ever their solemn tread
Down the dim-lighted past
In the steps of the seasons long since dead,
Too beautiful to last.

They are floating away, these swift, sweet years,
Like the seasons gone before;
They bear on their bosoms our hopes and fears,
But return to us nevermore.
Each after each, do they come and go,
With their burdens of joy and pain,
And the stream of time, in its ceaseless flow,
Brings them never back again.

They are floating away, these swift, sweet years;
But we look for the life above,
With no bleak winter, or blur of tears,
In the beautiful realm of love;
For when in the clouds is the King sublime,
To the raptured soul will be given,
In place of the fleeting years of time,
The numberless years of heaven.

PREFACE.

This is the seventeenth issue of the Year Book of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. Revised reports from every Union and local conference, from every mission field and institution connected with the denomination throughout the world, are to be found herein. The changes in organization, and the rapid advancement made in various lines, renders necessary the publication of such a directory, in order that there may be a ready means of communicating with proper officers in charge of conferences and departments of work.

Outline maps have been introduced in this issue of the Year Book, thus making the directories more valuable for reference. This feature is especially desirable at this time, in view of the number of changes in Union Conference boundary lines in the recent past.

Instead of following the plan heretofore pursued in arranging Union Conferences by territory in each general field, they are now grouped in each general field in alphabetical order. This is necessary because of the greater number, making it difficult for those unacquainted with the arrangement always readily to find the desired matter. The present arrangement places each Union Conference in alphabetical order in the general division, and each local conference in the Union alphabetically arranged in that Union, with mission fields following the local conferences, alphabetically.

The following table giving population, area, membership, and churches, is presented in the order in which the directory matter is arranged in the body of this work, and may therefore be used as a table of contents if desired: —

The figures indicating membership and churches, as reported above, are based, not on accurate returns by the secretaries of the various conferences, but are estimates which they have made. These figures, therefore, can in no case take precedence of the regular annual statistical report, which is compiled from accurate returns submitted from all parts of the world. The above figures are presented simply as a matter of convenience in this form, and should only be considered conservative estimates. By comparing the returns in the statistical report for 1906 with the figures given above for Europe and Australia, it would seem that the latter include the total number of Sabbath-keepers, rather than the church membership, whereas in all other Unions the estimates represent church membership only.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

By the late Uriah Smith.

Seventh-day Adventists have no creed but the Bible; but they hold to certain well-defined points of faith, for which they feel prepared to give a reason "to every man that asketh" them. The following propositions may be taken as a summary of the principal features of their religious faith, upon which there is, so far as is known, entire unanimity throughout the body. They believe:—

1. That there is one God, a personal, spiritual being, the Creator of all things, omnipotent, omniscient, and eternal; infinite in wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, truth, and mercy; unchangeable, and everywhere present by his representative, the Holy Spirit. Ps. 139: 7.

2. That there is one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Eternal Father, the one by whom he created all things, and by whom they do consist; that he took on him the nature of the seed of Abraham for the redemption of our fallen race; that he dwelt among men, full of grace and truth, lived our example, died our sacrifice, was raised for our justification, ascended on high to be our only mediator in the sanctuary in heaven, where through the merits of his shed blood, he secures the pardon and forgiveness of the sins of all those who persistently come to him; and as the closing portion of his work as priest, before he takes his throne as king, he will make the great atonement for the sins of all such, and their sins will then be blotted out (Acts 3: 19) and borne away from the sanctuary, as shown in the service of the Levitical priesthood, which foreshadowed and prefigured the ministry of our Lord in heaven. See Leviticus 16; Heb. 8: 4, 5; 9: 6, 7.

3. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain a full revelation of his will to man, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practise.

4. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church, to follow faith and repentance,—an ordinance by which we commemorate the resurrection of Christ, as by this act we show our faith in his burial and resurrection, and through that, in the resurrection of all the saints at the last day; and that no other mode more fitly represents these facts than that which the Scriptures prescribe, namely, immersion. Rom. 6: 3-5; Col. 2: 12.

5. That the new birth comprises the entire change necessary to fit us for the kingdom of God, and consists of two parts: First, a moral change wrought by conversion and a Christian life (John 5: 3); second, a physical change at the second coming of Christ, whereby, if dead, we are raised incorruptible, and if living, are changed to immortality in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. Luke 20: 36; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

6. That prophecy is a part of God's revelation to man; that it is included in that Scripture which is profitable for instruction (2 Tim. 3: 16); that it is designed for us and our children (Deut. 29: 29); that so far from being enshrouded in impenetrable mystery, it is that which especially constitutes the word of God a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Ps. 119: 105; 2 Peter 1: 19); that a blessing is pronounced upon those who study it (Rev. 1: 1-3); and that, consequently, it is to be understood by the people of God sufficiently to show them their position in the world's history and the special duties required at their hands.

7. That the world's history from specified dates in the past, the rise and fall of empires, and the chronological succession of events down to the setting up of God's everlasting kingdom, are outlined in numerous great chains of prophecy; and that these prophecies are now all fulfilled except the closing scenes.

8. That the doctrine of the world's conversion and a temporal millennium is a fable of these last days, calculated to lull men into a state of carnal security, and cause them to be overtaken by the great day of the Lord as by a thief in the night (1 Thess. 5: 3); that the second coming of Christ is to precede, not follow, the millennium; for until the Lord appears, the papal power, with all its abominations, is to continue (2 Thess. 2: 8), the wheat and the tares grow together (Matt. 13: 29, 30, 39), and evil men and seducers wax worse and worse, as the word of God declares. 2 Tim. 3: 1, 13.

9. That the mistake of Adventists in 1844 pertained to the nature of the event then to transpire, not to the time; that no prophetic period is given to reach to the second advent, but that the longest one, the two thousand and three hundred days of Dan. 8: 14, terminated in 1844, and brought us to an event called the cleansing of the sanctuary. See Note 1.

10. That the sanctuary of the new covenant is the tabernacle of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which our Lord, as great high priest, is minister; that this sanctuary is the antitype of the Mosaic tabernacle, and that the priestly work of our Lord, connected therewith, is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation (Heb. 8: 1-5, etc.); that this, and not the earth, is the sanctuary to be cleansed at the end of the two thousand and three hundred days, what is termed its cleansing being in this case, as in the type, simply the entrance of the high priest into the most holy place, to finish the round of service connected therewith by making the atonement and removing from the sanctuary the sins which had been transferred to it by means of the ministration in the first apartment (Leviticus 16; Heb. 9: 22, 23); and that this work in the antitype, beginning in 1844, consists in actually blotting out the sins of believers (Acts 3: 19), and occupies a brief but indefinite space of time, at the conclusion of which the work of mercy for the world will be finished, and the second advent of Christ will take place.

11. That God's moral requirements are the same upon all men in all dispensations; that these are summarily contained in the commandments spoken by Jehovah from Sinai, engraven on the tables of stone, and deposited in the ark, which was in consequence called the "ark of the covenant," or testament (Num. 10: 33; Heb. 9: 4, etc.); that this law is immutable and perpetual, being a transcript of the tables deposited in the ark in the true sanctuary on high, which is also, for the same reason, called the ark of God's testament; for under the sounding of the seventh trumpet we are told that "the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament." Rev. 11: 19.

12. That the fourth commandment of this law requires that we devote the seventh day of each week, commonly called Saturday, to abstinence from our own labor, and to the performance of sacred and religious duties; that this is the only weekly Sabbath known to the Bible, being the day that was set apart before Paradise was lost (Gen. 2: 2, 3), and which will be observed in Paradise restored (Isa. 66: 22, 23); that the facts upon which the Sabbath institution is based confine it to the seventh day, as they are not true of any other day, and that the terms, Jewish Sabbath, as applied to the seventh day, and Christian sabbath, as applied to the first day of the week, are names of human invention, unscriptural in fact, and false in meaning.

13. That as the man of sin, the papacy, has thought to change times and laws (the law of God, Dan. 7: 25), and has misled almost all Christendom in regard to the fourth commandment, we find a prophecy of a reform, in this respect to be wrought among believers just before the coming of Christ. Isa. 56: 1, 2; 1 Peter 1: 5; Rev. 14: 12, etc.

14. That the followers of Christ should be a peculiar people, not following the maxims, nor conforming to the ways, of the world; not loving its pleasures nor countenancing its follies; inasmuch as the apostle says that "whosoever therefore will be" in this sense, "a friend of the world is the enemy of God" (James 4: 4); and Christ says that we can not have two masters, or, at the same time, serve God and mammon. Matt. 6: 24.

15. That the Scriptures insist upon plainness and modesty of attire as a prominent mark of discipleship in those who profess to be the followers of Him who was "meek and lowly in heart;" that the wearing of gold, pearls, and costly array, or anything designed merely to adorn the person and foster the pride of the natural heart, is to be discarded, according to such scriptures as 1 Tim. 2: 9, 10; 1 Peter 3: 3, 4.

16. That means for the support of evangelical work among men should be contributed from love to God and love of souls, not raised by church lotteries, or occasions designed to contribute to the fun-loving, appetite-indulging propensities of the sinner, such as fairs, festivals, crazy socials, etc., which are a disgrace to the professed church of Christ; that the proportion of one's income required in former dispensations can be no less under the gospel; that it is the same as Abraham (whose children we are, if we are Christ's. Gal. 3: 29) paid to Melchisedec (type of Christ) when he gave him a tenth of all (Heb. 7: 1-4); the tithe is the Lord's (Lev. 27: 30); and this tenth of one's income is also to be supplemented by offerings from those who are able, for the support of the gospel. 2 Cor. 9: 6; Mal. 3: 8, 10.

17. That as the natural or carnal heart is at enmity with God and his law, this enmity can be subdued only by a radical transformation of the affections, the exchange of unholy for holy principles; that this transformation follows repentance and faith, is the special work of the Holy Spirit, and constitutes regeneration, or conversion.

18. That as all have violated the law of God, and can not of themselves render obedience to his just requirements, we are dependent on Christ, first, for justification from our past offenses, and, secondly, for grace whereby to render acceptable obedience to his holy law in time to come.

19. That the Spirit of God was promised to manifest itself in the church through certain gifts, enumerated especially in 1 Corinthians-12 and Ephesians 4; that these gifts are not designed to supersede, or take the place of, the Bible, which is sufficient to make us wise unto salvation, any more than the Bible can take the place of the Holy Spirit; that, in specifying the various channels of its operation, that Spirit has simply made provision for its own existence and presence with the people of God to the end of time to lead to an understanding of that word which it had inspired, to convince of sin, and to work a transformation in the heart and life; and that those who deny to the Spirit its place and operation, do plainly deny that part of the Bible which assigns to it this work and position.

20. That God, in accordance with his uniform dealings with the race, sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; and that this work is symbolized by the three messages of Revelation 14, the last one bringing to view the work of reform on the law of God, that his people may acquire a complete readiness for that event.

21. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary (see proposition 10), synchronizing with the time of the proclamation of the third message (Rev. 14: 9, 10), is a time of investigative judgment, first, with reference to the dead, and secondly, at the close of probation, with reference to the living, to determine who of the myriads now sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation,—points which must be determined before the Lord appears.

22. That the grave, whither we all tend, expressed by the Hebrew word "sheol" and the Greek word "hades," is a place, or condition, in which there is no work, device, wisdom, nor knowledge. Eccl. 9: 10.

23. That the state to which we are reduced by death is one of silence, inactivity, and entire unconsciousness. Ps. 146: 4; Eccl. 9: 5, 6; Dan. 12: 2.

24. That out of this prison-house of the grave, mankind are to be brought by a bodily resurrection, the righteous having part in the first resurrection, which takes place at the second coming of Christ; the wicked in the second resurrection, which takes place in a thousand years thereafter. Rev. 20: 4-6.

25. That at the last trump, the living righteous are to be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and that the risen righteous are to be caught up to meet the Lord in the air, so forever to be with the Lord. 1 Thess. 4: 16, 17; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

26. That these immortalized ones are then taken to heaven, to the New Jerusalem, the Father's house, in which there are many mansions (John 14: 1-3), where they reign with Christ a thousand years, judging the world and fallen angels, that is, apportioning the punishment to be executed upon them at the close of the one thousand years (Rev. 20: 4; 1 Cor. 6: 2, 3); that during this time the earth lies in a desolate, chaotic condition (Jer 4: 23-27), described, as in the beginning, by the Greek term "abussos" (bottomless pit, Septuagint of Gen. 1: 2); and that here Satan is confined during the thousand years (Rev. 20: 1, 2), and here finally destroyed (Rev. 20: 10; Mal. 4: 1); the theater of the ruin he has wrought in the universe being appropriately made for a time his gloomy prison-house, and then the place of his final execution.

27. That at the end of the thousand years the Lord descends with his people and the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21: 2), the wicked dead are raised, and come up on the surface of the yet unrenewed earth, and gather about the city, the camp of the saints (Rev. 20: 9), and fire comes down from God out of heaven and devours them. They are then consumed, root and branch (Mal. 4: 1), becoming as though they had not been (Obadiah 15, 16). In this everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord (2 Thess. 1: 9), the wicked meet the "everlasting punishment" threatened against them (Matt. 25: 46), which is everlasting death. Rom. 6: 23; Rev. 20: 14, 15. This is the perdition of ungodly men, the fire which consumes them being the fire for which "the heavens and the earth, which are now, . . . are kept in store," which shall melt even the elements with its intensity, and purge the earth from the deepest stains of the curse of sin. 2 Peter 3: 7-12.

28. That new heavens and a new earth shall spring by the power of God from the ashes of the old, and this renewed earth with the New Jerusalem for its metropolis and capital shall be the eternal inheritance of the saints, the place where the righteous shall evermore dwell. 2 Peter 3: 13; Ps. 37: 11, 29; Matt. 5: 5.

NOTE 1, REGARDING PROPOSITION 9.—The Adventists of 1844 expected that the end of the world would come in that year, because they held that certain prophecies would then transpire, which they believed reached to the coming of the Lord. Chief among these was the prophecy of Dan. 8: 13, 14, which says that at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days (years) the sanctuary should be cleansed. They believed that the earth was the sanctuary then to be cleansed, and that its cleansing was to be accomplished with fire, which would accompany the manifestation of the Lord from heaven. From these premises, the conclusion seemed inevitable that when the 2300 years ended, in 1844, the Lord would come.

But the day passed, and no Saviour appeared. Suspended between hope and fear, and waiting until every plausible allowance for possible inaccuracies of reckoning and variations of time, was exhausted, it became at length apparent that a great mistake had been made, and that the mistake must be on one or both of the following points: either, first, the period of the 2300 days did not end at that time, and they had made a mistake in supposing that they would terminate in that year; or, secondly, the cleansing of the sanctuary was not to be the burning of the earth at the second coming of Christ, and hence they had made a mistake in expecting such an event at that time. While there was a possibility that they had made a mistake on both these points, it was certain that they had made a mistake on one of them; and either one would be sufficient to account for the fact that the Lord did not then appear.

A movement which had enlisted the whole interest of thousands upon thousands, and thrilled their hearts with enthusiastic hope, was not to be abandoned, especially by its more conservative and sincere adherents, without earnest thought and reflection. The whole field of evidence was therefore carefully resurveyed. It soon became apparent that two methods were being adopted to account for the fact that the Lord did not come when he was expected, and to explain the consequent disappointment.

One class, at a rash bound, reached the conclusion that they had made a mistake in the time, and that the prophetic periods had not expired. This was, of course, to abandon the whole previous movement, with all its accompanying manifestations of divine power; for if the time was wrong, everything was wrong.

Another class, impressed with the fact that God had given too much evidence of his connection with the movement to allow them to abandon it, carefully reviewed the evidence on every point. The result with them was a clearer conviction of the strength and harmony of the argument on chronology. They saw no ground to change their views upon the reckoning of the time, but felt more convinced than ever that the 2300 days were correctly applied, and that they terminated at the time appointed in 1844. Thus they became satisfied that the error lay in their previous views of the subject of the sanctuary and its cleansing, and that they had made a mistake in supposing that the earth would be burned at the end of the 2300 days, because the prophecy said that then the "sanctuary" should "be cleansed."

This brings us to note the difference between Seventh-day Adventists and those called First-day Adventists, as respects chronology. The latter, believing that the prophetic periods were given to make known the time of Christ's coming, and that they have not yet ended, are held to one of two conclusions: either that all that is said in the Bible about these periods is so much of revelation unrevealed, or else that the time of Christ's coming is to be known. The first conclusion, as consistent believers in the Bible, they can not adopt, and hence their continual efforts to readjust the prophetic periods, and fix upon some new time for Christ to come. From this has arisen, in these later years, all the fantastic time-setting which has very naturally disgusted the world, and worse than this, has brought a stigma of reproach upon all prophetic study. On the other hand, Seventh-day Adventists set no time. While they believe that the prophetic periods are to be understood, they believe also that these periods have been correctly interpreted, and have all terminated; so that now there is no data from which to reason respecting a definite time for their Lord to come.

The Buffalo Seventh-day Adventist Sanitarium

This institution has been established in the western portion of the city of Buffalo near the elevated shores of the Niagara River. It has been in successful operation for nearly five years. Being conducted under the auspices of the Western New York Conference, its aim is to do gospel medical missionary work. During the last two years an incorporated training-school for nurses has been added to the work, and it maintains at present a three-year course for nurses.

The work embraces medical, surgical, and obstetrical cases. The equipment is appropriate for the proper prosecution of this work. It embraces the electric-light, phototherapy, all forms of hydrotherapy, electro-hydric, the hot-air cabinet, mechanical vibration, and massage. Facilities for surgical work are also provided.

“On the Banks of the Wabash”

The Seventh-day Adventist Wabash Valley Sanitarium is a well-equipped medical institution employing the same methods as the world-famous sanitariums of Washington, D. C., Boulder, Colo., Loma Linda and St. Helena, Cal., and others operated by this denomination. The medical staff is composed of physicians of both sexes who are graduates of well-known and reputable medical schools, also a large corps of nurses of both sexes. This sanitarium has just been completed, and is newly furnished throughout. The most modern and approved methods of sanitation, surgery, and medical attention are employed. This institution is beautifully situated on the banks of the famous Wabash River, three miles north of the city of Lafayette, Ind., and comprises twenty-five acres. Heavily wooded hills rise to a height of nearly 200 feet in the immediate rear of our buildings, with many beautiful glens and dells. Wild flowers of every description grow in abundance. Flower gardens are at the disposal of our patients, and work in the same is prescribed as a part of the regular treatment. A natural spring furnishes an abundant supply of pure water of medicinal properties. The health-giving facilities and environment of this institution must be seen to be appreciated. The interurban cars stop at our station on our own grounds. Write for full particulars and catalogue to the Wabash Valley Sanitarium, La Fayette, Ind.

As Good as a Preacher

One of our first companies in the West Indies was presented with a complete set of the "Testimonies for the Church." They were for several years without a preacher, but they reported that the reading of the Testimonies not only kept them from discouragement, and fully established them in the faith, but also developed new believers.

"Testimonies for the Church" should be in the home of every Seventh-day Adventist. The messages which they contain are for each one, right now. You can not afford to be without them.

Prices: Full sets, volumes I-VIII, in flexible leather, $11.50. Single volumes, I-VI, $1.50 each; VII and VIII, $1.25 each. Full set, cloth, $7.50. Single volumes, I-VI, $1.00 each; volumes VII and VIII, 75 cents each.

Early Writings

The first writings of Mrs. E. G. White, including the volume, "Experience and Views." It will be read with increasing interest as we see the progress of the message in all lands and the approach of the end.

Such chapters as the "Sealing," "The Little Flock," "The Seven Last Plagues and the Judgment," should be studied by every one,— "the time is at hand."

The book is printed from entirely new plates, and made uniform with the "Testimonies for the Church." Cloth, 75 cents; leather, $1.25.

Pocket Edition. Printed on thin paper. Contains all the matter found in the larger book. Bound in paper covers; price, 35 cents. A few copies in red flexible leather, $1.25. Full morocco, gilt edges, $1.50.

YOU CAN HELP

If you purchase any one of the following publications, it will be a substantial help to either a sanitarium, a school, or a mission field. The entire profits derived from the sale of these books goes to the up-building of these three important lines of work.

Ministry of Healing

"The great world is sick, and wherever the children of men dwell, sin and suffering abound." To help in alleviating this suffering, and to direct the mind to the One who is able to heal both body and soul, Mrs. E. G. White wrote "Ministry of Healing."

It contains 540 pages, attractively bound in cloth, $1.50 post-paid. A few copies in full morocco, limp, gilt edges, $2.50, post-paid.

Christ's Object Lessons

The parables of our Lord form the basis of one of the most interesting studies to be found in the Bible. In the book, "Christ's Object Lessons," the author, Mrs. E. G. White, draws many rich lessons from the parables which Jesus used in teaching the people.

The personal touch which is brought into the book will not fail to make you feel better acquainted with the Great Teacher when you have finished reading it.

Handsomely bound in cloth, stamped in two colors; $1.25, post-paid.

Our Message in the Sunny Caribbean

In this dainty little booklet, the author, himself a missionary pioneer, with graphic pen and an abundance of appropriate illustrations, takes you over the story of our missions in the West Indies.

You will be interested to note that among the converts are the aboriginal Indian, the Hindu, the negro, and the Caucasian. Send twenty-five cents, either coin or stamps, and the booklet will be yours. The profits from the sale of this booklet go to equipping a mission printing-office in Port of Spain, Trinidad.
