THE YOUTH'S INSTRUCTOR

ESTABLISHED IN 1852

¶ An illustrated weekly paper of eight large pages devoted to educating and encouraging the youth in a high conception of life.

¶ While its contents are always lively and entertaining, it is entirely free from the cheap, exciting stories so common in journals designed for the youth.

¶ Its general tone is well calculated to strengthen the understanding, to supply the mind with proper information, to invigorate the moral nature, to increase reverence, devotion, and a becoming love for God and humanity.

¶ The INSTRUCTOR is not filled with advertisements; but each issue is replete with much helpful mental food which will prepare the youth for future noble service. It contains the Sabbath-school lessons prepared for the young people of the denomination, and should be used in every Sabbath-school. See club rates below for such use.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Yearly subscription, 75 cents; six months, 40 cents; three months, 20 cents. To foreign countries, one year, $1.25.

CLUB RATES: Five to nine copies to one address, each 55 cents; ten to one hundred copies to one address, each 50 cents. Address,

THE YOUTH'S INSTRUCTOR,

Washington, D. C.

THE SABBATH- SCHOOL WORKER

¶ A 16-page journal published monthly by the Review and Herald Publishing Association for the General Conference Sabbath-school Department. Devoted to the Sabbath-school work and its general interests, containing—

¶ AN EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT, filled with practical information on the various phases of Sabbath-school work, and words of encouragement for all readers.

¶ GENERAL ARTICLES from regular contributors who are authority on all lines of Sabbath-school work.

¶ ILLUSTRATED MISSIONARY EXERCISES for the school, prepared by those engaged in active work with missions at home and abroad.

¶ PRACTICAL HELPS on current Sabbath-school Lessons for the Senior, Intermediate, Primary, and Kindergarten Departments, and much valuable information for Sabbath-school officers, teachers, parents, and pupils, rendering the journal an invaluable aid to all engaged in this important work.

¶ Full year subscriptions only. Single copies, 35 cents. Two or more copies to one address, 25 cents each. Address,

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL WORKER,

ANOTHER YEAR.

ANOTHER year is passing,
Dear Master, let it be,
In working and in waiting,
Another year with Thee.

Another year of leaning
Upon Thy loving breast,
Of ever-deepening trustfulness,
Of quiet, happy rest.

Another year of mercies,
Of faithfulness and grace;
Another year of gladness
In the shining of Thy face.

Another year of progress,
Another year of praise,
Another year of proving
Thy presence all the days.

Another year of service,
Of witness for Thy love;
Another year of training
For holier work above.

HISTORICAL SUMMARY FOR 1905.

April 16 occurred the dedication of the new factory of the Pacific Press Publishing Company at Mountain View, Cal.

The thirty-sixth session of the General Conference was held in camp in Takoma Park, Washington, D. C., May 11 to 30, 1905, with 197 delegates, representing 78 Conferences and 50 Missions. Twenty-nine of the delegates were from fields outside of the United States and Canada. Thirty-five meetings were held, in which were adopted the following—

Important Actions:

Establishment of headquarters in Washington, D. C., approved; that the regular sessions of the Conference be held once in four years; official call upon, and statement to, the President of the United States, respecting our attitude toward civil government; endorsement of the plan of sharing laborers with needy foreign fields, and its further adoption recommended.

Departments.

The following constitute the departments of the General Conference: Publishing, medical, Sabbath-school, religious liberty, educational, and North American foreign; the members of said committees to be appointed by the General Conference Committee, and the term of service understood to be two years.

Sabbath-school.

Hearty support to be given the Sabbath-school Worker; Sabbath-schools recommended to increase their donations; the holding of conventions encouraged.

Religious Liberty.

That religious liberty departments be organized, and secretaries appointed, in each Union and State Conference in North America; that institutes be held; petition and remonstrance work to be diligently followed; and that suitable religious liberty literature be extensively circulated.

Medical Missionary.

Medical Missionary Department created, and council provided, to assist in advancing medical missionary interests in all parts of the world; that conference institutions be placed under the management of local boards elected by the conference, or by such arrangement as the conference may provide.

Educational.

Educational Department to consist of twenty-five members, from all parts of the world, to be appointed by the General Conference Committee; sixteen grades adopted as the standard of educational system, with division as follows: Primary schools, 1-7; intermediate schools, 8-10; colleges, 11-16. General plan adopted for unifying educational interests of General, Union, and State Conferences; preparation of school manual recommended; appointment of text-book committee; that literature on primary school work be circulated; that conventions be held; primary schools to be supervised more closely; and that no such school be established or discontinued without advice or counsel from the conference officials; that intermediate schools should not be established without the co-operation and counsel of the Union Conference; that a more thorough training be required for prospective teachers; an examining board to be appointed to provide questions and conduct examinations for the promotion of students and the granting of certificates to teachers; that the use of the word "professor" be limited in its use to those who are or have been engaged in advanced lines of education.

North American Foreign.

This department consists of five members or more, to labor in behalf of the various foreign nationalities in North America; that the Vice-President of the General Conference for North America act as chairman of the Department; that a leader for the German and a leader for the Scandinavian nationalities in North America be appointed, to be under pay of the General Conference, and to constitute a part of this department; that this department take the general oversight of the work of securing and circulating our literature in North America in all the various languages, and assist the organized conferences and mission fields in prosecuting the message among their respective peoples.

Publishing.

That a depository for foreign publications be established in New York City; that the sale of subscription books be given special attention; that a general missionary campaign be entered upon for the sale and distribution of publications and periodicals, for the holding of meetings, and for missionary correspondence and conventions; that a missionary campaign committee be appointed to co-operate with conference officers in these matters.

Financial.

That an appeal in behalf of the payment of a faithful tithe be prepared to be placed in the hands of every Sabbath-keeper in the world; that officers of conferences and churches, and all gospel workers, be ensamples in the payment of tithes and offerings; that uniform envelopes be prepared by the General Conference for the collection of tithes and offerings weekly; that able-bodied conference laborers who are non-producers be advised to take up some line of self-supporting work; that the tithe be not used for building purposes, the maintenance of church schools, or for church expenses, but be devoted entirely to the support of evangelistic work and Bible teachers; that the second Sabbath in each month be set apart as "missionary day," for the special consideration of our missions, and appropriate exercises arranged; that five general annual collections be taken; namely, two offerings for the foreign missionary work; one for the religious liberty work; one for the work among the colored people throughout the United States, and an offering for the orphans of the Haskell Home and similar institutions; that the Foreign Mission Board of Seventh-day Adventists, a corporation of the City of New York, close its corporate existence and transfer its property either to the Union Conference organizations or to the General Conference Corporation; organization of the General Conference Corporation, a corporation of Washington, D. C., approved, and advice given that all future legal business with the denomination be done with this organization, and hence that the General Conference Association transfer its business thereto.

That the General Conference assume no financial responsibility whatsoever in any institution, corporation, or enterprise in any part of the world without a direct action by the General Conference or by the General Conference Committee; that care be taken to conduct all denominational institutions and enterprises on safe business lines; the Mission Board recognized as the proper custodian of all general mission funds, and that such funds be forwarded monthly; a revision of forms and blanks for collecting funds, and the form of report blanks, recommended.

Young People's Work.

That the Sabbath-school Department of the General Conference give special attention to work for the young people; that practical work be encouraged among young people, and that young people's societies unite in the support of one or more laborers in some mission field; that a vigorous educational campaign be carried on in behalf of this work, by means of conventions, articles, leaflets, and studies.

Annual Reports.

That the Year Book be published in November of each year; that annual statistical reports be prepared and published; that the fiscal year of all conferences, institutions, and departments end on the 31st of December.

Territorial Lines.

That Malaysia be included in the Australasian Union Conference; that Korea be attached to the Japan Mission, under one management.

Transfer of Church Membership.

It was voted that greater care be used by members of churches in the transfer of their membership to the churches where they reside. It was advised that members who do not report to their home church for a period of two years, and whose whereabouts and standing can not, after due efforts, be ascertained, be dropped from the church record. Persons who are traveling were recommended to carry letters of recommendation, and, when visiting distant fields, that this letter be endorsed by the president of the local conference, with date.

"Ministry of Healing."

Relief Bureau organized for the sale of "Ministry of Healing," for the payment of Sanitarium indebtedness and the better equipment of such institutions, and the basis of such work outlined.

Second Tithe.

A study and adoption of the second tithe by our people recommended, the funds so obtained to be used in educational, philanthropic, charitable, and missionary work.

Foreign Fields.

A memorial relating to work in foreign fields accepted, and hearty support pledged for the great unworked mission fields.

Vital Statistics.

Ministers recommended to co-operate with the Medical Missionary Council in returning record blanks regarding vital statistics.

Financial.

That fifteen per cent of regular unspecified offerings coming into the General Conference treasury be used for the payment of past deficits; that $15,000 be returned to the Review and Herald Publishing Association, in lieu of bona fide claims which that Association has given up against the General Conference Corporation through the Battle Creek College property.

Officers Elected.

President, A. G. Daniells; Vice-Presidents, for Europe, L. R. Conradi; for America, G. A. Irwin; Secretary, W. A. Spicer; Treasurer, I. H. Evans. The Committee elected consisted of thirty-one members; the full complement is thirty-four.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

As Amended at the thirty-sixth session, held at Washington, D. C.,

May 11--30, 1905.

CONSTITUTION.

Article I—Name.

This organization shall be known as the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Article II—Object.

The object of this Conference is to teach all nations the everlasting gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Article III—Membership.

Section 1. The membership of this Conference shall consist of—

(a) Such Union Conferences as have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote.

(b) Such local conferences as are not embraced in any Union Conference, as have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote.

Sec. 2. The voters of this Conference shall be designated as follows:—

(a) Delegates at large.

(b) Regular delegates.

Sec. 3. Delegates at large shall be:—

(a) The General Conference Executive Committee.

(b) The Secretary and the Treasurer of the General Conference.

(c) Such members of departmental committees and representatives of missions of the General Conference as shall receive credentials from its Executive Committee.

Sec. 4. Regular delegates shall be such persons as are duly accredited by Union Conferences, or local conferences not included in Union Conferences.

Sec. 5. Each Union Conference shall be entitled to one delegate without regard to numbers, an additional delegate for each conference in its territory, and an additional delegate for each one thousand of its membership. Each local conference not included in any Union Conference shall be entitled to one delegate, without regard to numbers, and one additional delegate for each one thousand members.

Article IV—Executive Committee.

Section 1. At each session the Conference shall elect an Executive Committee for the carrying forward of its work between the sessions.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall consist of the president, two vice-presidents, the presidents of Union Conferences, the superintendents of organized Union Missions and fifteen other persons, among whom there shall be representatives of all the leading departments of Conference work, including the publishing, medical, educational, Sabbath-school, religious liberty, and North American foreign.

Article V — Officers and Their Duties.

Section 1. The officers of this Conference shall be a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and an auditor, who shall be elected by the Conference.

Sec. 2. President: The duties of the president shall be to act as chairman of the Executive Committee, and to labor in the general interests of the Conference, as the Executive Committee may advise.

Sec. 3. Vice-presidents: The duties of the first vice-president shall be to labor in the European Union Conferences and Missions, as the Executive Committee may advise, and to preside at the councils of the members of the Executive Committee, which may be held in Europe, in the absence of the president.

The duties of the second vice-president shall be to labor in the American Union Conferences and Missions, as the Executive Committee may advise, and, in the absence of the president, to preside at the councils of the members of the Executive Committee which may be held in America.

Sec. 4. The Secretary: It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Conference sessions and of the committee meetings, and to collect such statistics and other facts from Union and Local Conferences as may be desired by the Conference or the Executive Committee, and to perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office.

Sec. 5. The Treasurer: It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds and disburse them by order of the president, and to render such financial statements at regular intervals as may be desired by the Conference or the Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. Election of Officers and Executive Committee: All officers of the Conference, except members of the Executive Committee who are presidents of Union Conferences or Superintendents of Union Mission Fields, shall be chosen by the delegates at the regular quadrennial sessions of the General Conference, and shall hold their offices for the period of four years, or until their successors are elected and appear to enter upon their duties.

Article VI — Incorporations, Departments, and Agents.

Section 1. Such incorporations may be authorized and departments created as the development of the work requires.

Sec. 2. At each regular session of this Conference the delegates shall elect the trustees of all corporate bodies connected with this organization, as may be provided in the statutory laws governing each.

Sec. 3. The Conference shall employ such committees, secretaries, agents, ministers, missionaries, and other persons, and make such distribution of its labors as may be necessary to effectively execute its work. It shall also grant credentials or licenses to its ministers and missionaries.

Article VII — Sessions.

Section 1. This Conference shall hold quadrennial sessions at such date and place as the Executive Committee shall designate by a notice published in the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald at least three months before the date for the session.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee may call special sessions at such time and place as it deems proper, by a like notice, and the transactions of such special sessions shall have the same force as those of the regular sessions.

Article VIII — By-laws.

The voters of this Conference may enact By-laws and amend or repeal them at any session thereof, and such By-laws may embrace any provision not inconsistent with the Constitution.

Article IX — Amendments.

This Constitution or its By-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the voters present at any session, provided that, if it is proposed to amend the Constitution at a special session, notice of such purpose shall be given in the call for such special session.

BY-LAWS.

Article I — Regular Sessions.

Section 1. At each session of the Conference, the Executive Committee shall nominate for election the presiding officers for the session.

Sec. 2. Previous to each session of the Conference, the Executive Committee shall provide such temporary committees as may be necessary to conduct the preliminary work of the Conference.

Article II — Executive Committee.

Section 1. During the intervals between sessions of the Conference, the Executive Committee shall have full administrative power, and shall fill for the current term any vacancies that may occur in its offices, boards, committees, or agents, by death, resignation, or otherwise, except in cases where other provisions for filling such vacancies shall be made by vote of the General Conference.

Sec. 2. Any five members of the Executive Committee, including the president or vice-president, shall be empowered to transact such executive business as is in harmony with the general plans outlined by the Committee, but the concurrence of four members shall be necessary to pass any measure.

Sec. 3. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called at any time or place, by the president or vice-president, or by the secretary, upon the written request of any five members of the committee.

Article III — Departments.

Section 1. The work of the departments of this organization shall be in charge of committees selected by the Executive Committee, when not otherwise provided for by the Conference.

Article IV — Finance.

Section 1. This Conference shall receive a tithe from all of its Union and Local Conferences, and the tithe of its Union and Local Mission Fields.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall be authorized to call for such special donations as may be necessary to properly prosecute its work.

Sec. 3. The Conference shall receive offerings devoted to missions.

Article V — Audits.

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall have the accounts of the Conference and of its several departments audited at least once each calendar year, and shall report upon the same to the General Conference at its regular sessions.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall appoint annually eight persons not in its employ, who, with the president, vice-presidents, and presidents of Union Conferences, shall constitute a committee for auditing and settling all accounts against the General Conference.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE HAS COME TO KEENE ACADEMY

ONE year ago we stated that "before another year begins, the Academy debt will be paid, which will open the way for improvements." The brethren have made this statement good. We are now putting a steam heating plant in our Home; and after paying for this we will still have several hundred dollars left for other improvements. The time is near when our school will be thoroughly equipped.

WE HAVE LENGTHENED OUR COURSE OF STUDY AND STRENGTHENED OUR FACULTY. We give a thorough literary training and make a specialty of preparing for the ministry, teaching, and medical courses.

A THOROUGH BUSINESS COURSE gives an up-to-date training for office work and denominational business.

OUR INCREASED ATTENDANCE encourages us to plan for a still more efficient school.

OUR MILD CLIMATE is evidenced by the fact that our first killing frost came December 1, this year. By the middle of February we will be planting peas and potatoes.

THE LOCALITY IS UNUSUALLY HEALTHFUL. During the twelve years of the Academy's existence there has not been a death among the Home students.

CHARGES ARE REASONABLE. Students earn part of their expenses by work. The mild climate makes outdoor work agreeable. Send for calendar to

EMMANUEL MISSIONARY

COLLEGE

THIS is a training-school for Christian workers at Berrien Springs, Michigan. Its location in the country on a two hundred and sixty-six acre farm is most favorable for the education of those who desire a symmetrical training of all the powers of the being,—physical, intellectual, and spiritual. At the same time it is free from the special evil influences of city life. In every way it stands firmly for the promulgation of the distinctive doctrines of the Third Angel's Message. Members of the faculty are not only schoolroom instructors, but field instructors as well. Agriculture, floriculture, horticulture, vegetable gardening, broom-making, carpentry, printing, cooking, and plain sewing constitute the manual training departments connected with the school. The expenses are $16 per month, each student being permitted to work to the extent of $5 per month. The courses of study offered are, the College Preparatory course of three years, in addition to a Teachers' course of four years; a Ministerial course of three years; a Preparatory Medical course of three years; a Commercial course of one year; and a Department of Music. In addition to these is offered a number of elective post-graduate studies for the benefit of those who desire to do still more advanced work. All the instruction is given in view not only of time but of eternity.

It is not designed, however, that the order of arrangement be ironclad. As far as consistent with the program, and with the advice of the Faculty, students elect their work. Neither is it deemed necessary for students to complete all the studies of the Ministerial or the Teachers' course before entering upon the work of their choice. But from time to time they may return to the College and take up more advanced studies, as their experience in the field may reveal their need. In each year of every course a distinctive Bible study is placed first, since "a knowledge of God is the foundation of all true education." Indeed, Biblical principles underlie the work of all the departments; and all the courses are presented with the thought uppermost in mind, of the best and most rapid preparation of the young for positions of trust and responsibility in connection with the great work of God in the earth.
